

Children's National.

Children's National Pediatric Multidisciplinary Solid Tumor Board

Children's National Pediatric Multidisciplinary Solid Tumor Board

Presented by Dr. Holly Meany

4E Team Center

March 20, 2024

4:00 – 5:00 p.m. EST

To claim credit,
text RAVDAY
to 703.260.9391*

Target audience: Pediatricians, Pediatric subspecialists including Oncology, Surgery, Radiation Oncology, Pharmacy, Pathology, Radiology, Social Work, Nursing

Learning objectives:

- Understand the current treatment guidelines for patients with solid tumors in accordance with the best available evidence
- Identify clinical trials and evidence based relevant information for the management of oncology patients with newly diagnosed, relapsed or refractory solid tumors
- Formulate a plan for patients with solid tumors that appropriately incorporates the expertise of the multidisciplinary team as indicated for patient's underlying disease which may include and is not limited to surgery, radiation oncology, oncology, interventional radiology, palliative care, radiology, and pathology

Accreditation: This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Medical Society of Virginia (MSV) through the joint providership of Inova Office of Continuing Medical Education and Children's National Medical Center. The Inova Office Continuing Medical Education is accredited by the Medical Society of Virginia to provide continuing education for physicians.

Credit designation: The Inova Office of Continuing Medical Education designates this live educational activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. Physicians may claim up to 1.0 credit in Type 1 CME on the Virginia Board of Medicine Continued Competency and Assessment Form required for renewal of an active medical license in Virginia.

